

Frederick Irwin Anglican School

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

November 2012

1996 Leavers

Ellen Ceklic (O'Brien) (92 – 96) is concentrating on being the best mum she can be to Ozren (four years) and Filip (two years) whilst attempting to continue with her PHD in Human Factors Psychology. This year Ellen lived in sunny Montenegro for 3 months and enjoyed the slow pace of coastal Adriatic life. Ellen is still in contact with Elita Hamilton-Brown (Pyburne) (92 – 96), who has just had a little girl, Harla, and said, "She is stunningly beautiful."

Roy Lane (96) is running his own business, Lane Ford in Mandurah.

Tarmianne Marshall (92 – 96) is working at Synergy as the Senior Project Manager and last year returned to the University of Western Australia to complete a Master of Business Administration part-time. This year Tarmianne had an amazing experience when she travelled to Germany to study at WHU and visit a number of factories around Southern Germany such as Mercedes, Siemens and John Deere as part of the MBA.

1997 Leavers

Gavin Dawson (93 – 97) is working at Deloitte's. Gavin married Emi in Hawaii in 2011 and they are looking forward to building a new home in Port Coogee. Gavin is still in contact with Barry Misarz (95 – 97) who is now living and working in Karratha with his wife, Lesley.

Christopher Leach (93 – 97) started the year nicely taking his wife Sarz over to Queensland at Surfers Paradise! They had a great time going to all the theme parks then made their way back to take his ute into Motorvation 26 at the Perth Motorplex for the car show and events. For the rest of the year Christopher has still been working up North at the BHP Warrawandu Village site, building the camp with Austindo who were contracted again by Decmil Australia. He is now looking forward to time off over Christmas to see family and friends. Christopher does not keep in contact with many ex-students, just a little through social media.

Yulie Olsson-White (93 – 97) is now working as a Health Service and Facility Planner for a project management company in West Perth, facilitating the planning and design of hospital redevelopments both here in Western Australia and in the Northern Territory. Yulie has retained her interest in prehospital care by continuing to work for St John's Ambulance as a casual Paramedic. Yulie is still in contact with Karen Moore (95 – 97), Tanya Rogalski (93 – 97), Leonie Pradella (94 – 97), Carmen Dawson (93 – 97) and Amy Miles (93 – 97) who are all doing well and living in various parts of Western Australia and the United Kingdom. Yulie still has the travel bug and has recently been on safari in South Africa and camping in Kakadu.

Casey Rafferty (93 – 97) has been designing for her own set of clients and has been fortunate enough to work with Nike, Evans and Tate, the City of London, Design Council and Ogilvy. Casey is still in contact with Ebony Harding (Pyburne) (93 – 97) who lives near her in London, as well as Ashe Brewer (93 – 97), Rebecca Osborn (94 – 97), Elyse Casserly (92 – 97) and Jason Day (92 – 95). Casey is planning to move to Melbourne and embark on a Masters in Communication Design at RMIT, focusing on Brand Strategy and Management. Later in the year Casey will be marrying her partner of three years, Aimee Luxton (93 – 97).

Clinton Styler (93 – 97) is currently working for the Communist Republic of China in the little known Southern Province of Sino (Iron Ore mine near Karratha, WA). Clinton is travelling to Thailand shortly for a holiday followed by Mauritius, Madagascar and South Africa next year. Clinton still keeps in contact with Mark Patterson (93 – 97) and Ryan Abrahams (92 – 97). Mark and his wife are still living in Mandurah and raising a family, while Ryan and his wife are living by themselves just North of Perth. Clinton married his fiancée of two years, Mandy, in March this year in Honalulu, Hawaii. They cruised all the way there from Sydney. Clinton would recommend the trip, "It was fantastic!"

Amy Thomas (Miles) (93 – 97) has been living in the United Kingdom for the past five years with her husband. This year Amy and her husband have taken every opportunity to travel and have managed to visit France, Holland, Belgium, Norway, Switzerland, Hungary, Poland, Austria, Luxembourg, Liechtenstein, Slovakia and the Czech Republic. One of the highlights for them was a trip to Mumbai, India, for a friend's wedding where all the guests dressed in traditional Indian attire. Amy said, "It was an exotic and magical event." Amy and her husband will be spending New Year's Eve in Colomo, Sri Lanka, where they will also be attending a wedding at which she is bridesmaid. Amy is still in contact with Yulie Olsson-White (93 – 97), Karen Moore (95 – 97), Leonie Pradella (94 – 97), Carmen Dawson (93 – 97), Tanya Rogalski (93 – 97) and Jenny Bright. Amy was fortunate enough to attend the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Parade on the Mall in London, the spectacle and atmosphere of which, she said "was truly amazing". Amy had a front row position for the Trooping the Colour ceremony and was only a stone throw away from William and Kate. Amy also saw Her Majesty the Queen at Royal Ascot.

1998 Leavers

Renee Butler (94 – 98) is still working in the family prawn and seafood shop and is a mother to three boys. Renee is still in contact with Rachael Pleasance (Greenup) (94 – 96) who is living the mining life in Tom Price and Loretta Kielman (91 – 98) is living the underground mining life in Kalgoorlie. Both are 'doing awesome' and loving life.

Helen DiCandilo (Richards) (91 – 98) is still enjoying working part-time at Peel Health Campus as a Ward Clerk. Helen is a busy mum of two, Mia who is four years old and Luca who is two years old. Helen is still in contact with Natasha Michalczuk (Parolo) (94 – 98), Sherron Van Daele (Pennell) (94 – 98), Shane Coumbe (94 – 98) and Jacinta Dewse (94 – 97) who are all very well. Helen's daughter will be starting Kindergarten at Frederick Irwin next year, 2013. She is looking forward to returning to school for her children's education even though the School has grown and changed so much since she graduated.

Carly Ellery (94 – 98) is busy at home with three children and a stepson. The family are going on camping holidays and then off to Phuket, Cambodia and Bangkok. Her husband's business is keeping her busy and they are still renovating their home. Carly is still in contact with Hayley Brown (Walker) (97 – 98) who is doing well and expecting her third baby; Jodie Wozniuk who is expecting her second baby; and Kate Ainsworth (Rundell) (94 – 98) who is busy with her children and back to teaching.

Mark Heal (93 – 98) is still a pilot for Cathay Pacific in Hong Kong and has upgraded to First Officer on the Airbus A330 and flying regionally, Middle East, India and also Australia. He spends time in both Australia and Hong Kong where he has a house boat. Mark is adding a third to the family next year so is kept very busy. He is still in contact with Tyron Miley (94 – 98) for fishing and catching up with a few others through social media.

Carolyn Kerr (Brown) (94 – 98) had a baby boy, Sterling, earlier this year and is currently on maternity leave. Carolyn will be returning to work as a Process Engineer at BP in the new year. Carolyn is still in contact with Annette Spargo (93 – 98) and Nicole Atkins (94 – 98).

Catherine Rayner (Stone) (94 – 98) has returned to Frederick Irwin as a member of staff teaching Pre-Primary. Catherine is still in contact with Emily Clarke (93 – 98), Pip Olde (97 – 98) and Tegan Jones (91 – 98).

Gareth Taylor (94 – 98) together with his wife, Kerrie, have recently welcomed their first child into the world; a beautiful girl named Bronte Belle. Kerrie is a Year 3 teacher at Frederick Irwin and loves it. Gareth still has a passion for travel and recently went to China and is heading back to Japan to snowboard again in the new year. Gareth is still working at Alcoa in Pinjarra and is still in contact with Josh (94 – 97) and Joel Parsons (93 – 01), Scott Faithful (94 – 98), Daniel Jacobs (99), Courtney Rees (97 – 01), Sion Jones (91 – 02), Mitchell (94 – 98) and Mark Slaughter (97 – 99).

1999 Leavers

Chelsea Coleman (Yandle) (95 – 99) is currently a full-time mum to her son, Blaze, who will turn two in November and her daughter, Isla, who was born in October this year! Chelsea is really enjoying being a mum. Chelsea is still in contact with Julia Connor (Smith) (95 – 99), Cally Jetta (Wachla) (92 – 99) and Caroline Stiles (Sefton) (95 – 99). They are all doing well and also have children. Cally and Julia work part-time and Caroline is a full-time mum.

Adam Dowd (95 – 99) has been living and working in Brisbane since May 2011 as an Engineer for a coal-seam gas company and regularly travels back to Perth for weddings and birthdays and to see family and friends. Adam is still in contact with Bradley Ashling (93 – 97), Jordana Greathead (96 – 00), Michael Kim (95 – 98), Shaik Rooney (92 – 97), Ben Truscott (95 – 99), Ryan Ashling (96 – 00), Stewart Khamhing (93 -97) and Tracy Lamers (Biasin) (93 – 99).

Tegan Jones (91 – 99) is currently working as an in-house lawyer in London for a company called ICE Futures Europe. Tegan is still in contact with the Khamhing Family, Walker Family and Lynette Ladhams (95 – 99).

Kenneth Crabbe (95 – 99) is teaching Physical Education, Health and Outdoor Education at Ravensthorpe District High School. This is his fourth year of teaching at the school.

Philippa O'Meara (Jones) (91 – 99) is still perfecting the art of housewifery, with a look to return to Graphic Design work when both children are at school. Philippa is in the same roller derby team as Felicity Townsend (97 – 98). Philippa started her own roller derby team for the Peel area, called Dread Pirate Rollers which trains at the newly built recreation centre in Kwinana.

Michael Riksman (97 – 99) quit Alcoa as a Process Control Engineer to be a tour leader through Europe over the summer and has just returned to Australia. Michael is still in contact with Trent Cain (95 – 99), Reece Thomson, Blair Thomson, Sarah McAllister (01 – 05), Claire Janiec (Gilbert) (98 – 02) and Brooke Cain (98 – 02).

Ben Truscott (95 – 99) was recently promoted to General Manager of Sea Containers Western Australia. A family run, Fremantle based organisation specialising in the sale, hire, modification and storage of sea containers. Ben is still in contact with Bradley Ashling (93 – 97), Jordana Greathead (96 – 00), Ryan Ashling (96 – 00), Robert and Lisa Bland (Pavlovic) (93 – 97), Mark and Shelley Clay (95 – 99), Adam Dowd (95 – 99), Michael Kim (95 – 98), Kimberley Hatton (92 – 97) and Stewart Khamhing (93 – 97). Ben competed and set a new personal best time in the inaugural Melbourne Ironman in March this year and is now looking for an Ironman race overseas to challenge himself further.

2000 Leavers

Amy Barker (91 – 00) is working full time as an Environment and Land Access Manager for a Mid West Gold Mining Company. Amy is still in contact with Shauna Thomas (91 – 00) and Rhys White (96 – 00).

Josephine Cudmore (Kentish) (96 – 00) is working with her dad on the family farm in Serpentine. Josephine is still in contact with Jemma McIntosh (97 – 01), Melissa Keeley (93 – 99) and Emma Turner (93 – 00). Josephine married last year and gave birth to a baby boy, Peter, in August this year and is a busy stay at home mum.

Leigh Evans (96 – 00) is working as a process control operator for BHP, destroying the earth one bucket of rocks at a time. Leigh is still in contact with Jase Pearson (96 – 00), Duncan Upchurch (93 – 00), Bradley Mercer (91 – 00), Danielle Mercer (McGranaghan) (96 – 00) and Dennis Lynn (96 – 00). Leigh has a puppy named Frank who, he says "is a legend".

Amy Germano (Williams) (92 – 00) had a baby girl, Chloe, who was born in April 2012 and is keeping her busy. Amy will be returning to work part-time as a mortgage broker in January and is still in contact with Kristan Smith (96 – 00), Alana Joske (96 – 00), Leah Griffiths (96 – 00), Rebecca Cutten (96 – 00), Cale Luxton (96 – 00), Elizabeth Knight (91 – 00), Jessica Craig-Piper (96 – 00) and Elly Slaughter (96 – 00).

Amber Lamprecht (96 – 00) is working at Brookfield Rail on the Midwest rail upgrade as a Contracts Specialist. Amber is still in contact with Karyn Bevan (Bentley) (92 - 00) who got married in Las Vegas this year which Amber celebrated with her. Amber is looking forward to the arrival of her first baby due in February 2013.

Cale Luxton (96 – 00) is working as a Senior Planner with the Department of Planning. Cale is still in contact with Clayton Denker (96 – 00), Amy Germano (Williams) (92 – 00), Peter Flynn (93 – 00), Aaron Willcock (95 – 00), Rebecca Cutten (96 – 00) and Clare Love (96 – 00). Cale celebrated the birth of his first child, Connor, in 2011.

Kym Matthews (van Stekelenburg) (96 – 00) commenced maternity leave in June this year. Prior to this she has been working for the last eight years as a Speech Pathologist at Armadale Community Health Centre. Kym has particularly enjoyed completing team Autism assessments. Kym is still in contact with Aimee Sinclair (96 – 00), Rebecca Richardson (Hall) (94 – 00) and Michele Wylie (96 – 00).

Natalie Pitaro (Lopaten) (93 – 00) is a Style Advisor and Personal Shopper at David Jones, Hay Street, Perth. Natalie recently married and enjoyed a fabulous honeymoon in China, Japan and Korea and is now settling into their beautiful home and becoming accustomed to the 'Freo' lifestyle.

Melanie Purcell (Sherwin) (96 – 00) is currently on maternity leave following the birth of her son, Ryan, in June 2012. Melanie has been living in Bunbury for several years and working as teacher at Harvey Primary School. Melanie married Craig in June 2011.

Michelle Strachan (96 – 00) has completed her Property Managers License and is now a Property Manager for LJ Hooker, Armadale. Michelle is pregnant with baby number two due in April 2013. Michelle is still in contact with Aimee Sinclair (96 – 00).

2001 Leavers

Clarissa Bloomfield (97 – 01) is working for Rio Tinto as a Senior Metallurgist and is still in contact with Stacey Davis (98 – 02). Clarissa has just returned from a five week trip in Europe and has bought her first house.

Natalie Davis (93 – 01) is working in a gallery called 'Outre Gallery' on William Street in Northbridge. She lives locally and loves the neighbourhood. Natalie has been doing work for festivals and signage for bars and has a two year old, Wolfgang, with her partner. Natalie is having an amazing time with her son at home. The family are travelling to Namibia and South Africa shortly and who knows where next! Natalie is still in contact with Matthew Dewse (93 – 01) who is studying in Tasmania and Scott Bakewake (93 – 01) who is married and has a new baby girl.

Paul Mitchell (95 – 01) is an Associate Sales Director for GE Capital Australia and New Zealand's Distribution Finance Business. Paul's brother Keith Mitchell (95 – 05) lives near him in Sydney and Paul looks forward to catching up with Joel Parsons (93 – 01), Luke Levis (97 – 01) and Rhys Bloxsidge (97 – 01), to name a few, when he is back in Perth.

Elizabeth Ellis (Scudamore) (00 - 01) is currently working for Jarman Mckenna as a Solicitor specialising in employment and industrial relations law. Elizabeth is currently on maternity leave following the birth of her son, Jacob Theodore Ellis, born in September 2012. Elizabeth is married to Adam Ellis (91 – 01) and still keeps in contact with Keri Arkell (Williams) (97 – 01) and Nooshin Rasool (97 – 01).

Anthony Snell (97 – 01) is working between the family beef property in Waroona and their station near Wiluna. Anthony is still in contact with Courtney Rees (97 – 01) who is getting married soon.

Brendon South (97 – 01) is a Project Planner for SKM working on Rio Tinto Cape Lambert project and is still in contact with Aaron South (98 – 02). Brendon has completed six and half years in the RAAF including overseas in Dubai and Afghanistan. He achieved rank of Corporal and qualified as a Diesel and Light Mechanic and Trainers Certificate. Brendon is currently based at Amberley, Ipswich.

Trinity Townsend (98 – 01) recently left her job in September as a Financial Counsellor after receiving her Accreditation earlier in April. Trinity started employment with Peel Community Legal Service as an Advocate in October. After almost four years Trinity still loves working within the Community Sector helping the vulnerable and disadvantaged members of the community.

2002 Leavers

Dale Allen (96 – 02) took three months off work this year to travel around the world with his girlfriend, Sam. His favourite places were Hawaii, Croatia, Turkey and Cambodia. Dale continues to work at KPMG in Perth. Dale is still in contact with Robert Martin (98 – 02) and Nathan Phillips (92 – 04).

Bianca Baker (Hall) (93 – 02) is teaching Year 3 at Frederick Irwin Anglican School. Bianca has just completed a 200km bike riding event raising funds for cancer research. Bianca is still in contact with Emily Cook (98 – 02), Kelly Hallums (98 – 02) and Sarah McAllister (01 – 05).

Anne Burman (98 – 02) is finishing her CPA in 2013 and enjoying a career as a Management Accountant. Anne is still in regular contact with Laura Zoranich (98 – 02), Klair Skinner (Redden) (01 – 02) and Rachel Edwards (02). Anne has plans to travel to New York for New Year's Eve and New Zealand in 2013.

Kelly Denham (Hull) (98 – 02) had her first baby in August this year; her name is Emelia. Kelly is currently on maternity leave from her role as a Private Banker with the Commonwealth Bank. Kelly is still in contact with Stacey Davis (98 – 02).

Taryn Glass (91 – 02) has been living in Bali for three years and teaches English at English Town in Denpasar. She comes home to her 'village' as often as she can but loves to catch up with friends whenever they visit Bali. Taryn is still in contact with Claire Gilbert (98 – 02), Rachael Hogen-Esch (91 – 02) and Alyce Hetherington (93 – 02).

Ebony Lawler (91 – 02) is currently on maternity leave following the birth of her first child, Ivy Mae. Ebony is preparing for her wedding in December when she will become Mrs O'Brien. Ebony is still in contact with Elizabeth Levis (98 – 02), Elizabeth Stone (98 – 02), Amanda Clarke (93 – 02), Natalie Everett (98 – 02), Elizabeth McLay (98 – 02), Courtney Baird (98 – 02) and also speaks to many other ex-students in passing.

Aaron South (98 – 02) is a Cost Controller working as a contractor for SKM on the Rio Tinto Cape Lambert project. Aaron is still in contact with Brendon South (97 – 01). Aaron completed a Bachelor of Commerce and Graduate Certificate in Business at Notre Dame University in Fremantle.

Caroline Talbot (Wharton) (98 – 02) is still working for the Telethon Institute of Child Health Research as a Study Coordinator in vaccine trials for children and adults. During her spare time Caroline is completing a Diploma in Floristry. Caroline is still in regular contact with Stephanie Wood (00 – 02) and uses social media to keep in touch with other ex-students. In March this year Caroline married her partner, Sam Talbot. In October this year Caroline and her husband completed the Ride to Conquer Cancer, 220km course over two days, to raise funds for cancer research.

Fletcher Wall (98 – 02) is continuing employment in the RAN as a Mine Clearance Diving Officer posted as the Operations Officer of HMAS DIAMANTINA whilst studying Masters of Project Management part-time with UNSW. Fletcher is still in contact with Daniel Palermo (98 – 02), Simon Bond (98 – 02) and Adam Hill (93 – 02) who are all well and excelling in their chosen fields.

Lauren Webb (98 – 02) is currently working in London, United Kingdom, where she has spent the last three years working as a History Teacher. During the summers she has been employed to train and teach aerial circus skills (flying trapeze aerial, silks, etc.) at a summer camp in America. Lauren spends most of her spare time travelling around the world. Lauren is still in contact with Kara Roberts (Sullivan) (01 – 02) who is married with two children and Stephanie Woltering (98 – 02) who is married and working in the mines. Lauren worked with Spootree Productions for the Brighton Fringe Festival in 2010 and will work with the company again for their new show in the London Mime Festival in January.

2003 Leavers

Brodie Boobyer (92 – 03) is currently working at Sir Charles Gardiner Emergency Department having just completed a Diploma in Emergency Nursing at Edwin Cowan University. Brodie is still in contact with Nicholas Rostin (00 – 03), Nikki Butler (94 – 03), Stacey Peck (92 – 03) and Natalie Hunt (92 – 03) who are all doing well.

Adam Cowie (01 – 03) is currently working FIFO as an underground LV Fitter at a mine site called Jaguar. Adam has also completed a Certificate 4 in Occupational Health and Safety and hoping to move into health and safety in the mines.

Candice Eisenkoeck (Meyers) (91 – 03) is currently on maternity leave as she is expecting another child in February 2013. Until then she is busy taking care of her two year old daughter and has become quite the expert in tantrum and meltdown negotiations. Apart from her brothers and sisters, Candice is still in contact with some of the girls from high school.

Emma Green (99 – 03) is working as an Insolvency Accountant for SV Partners an insolvency specific accounting firm in Brisbane, and continuing to complete a double degree in Law and Business (majoring in accounting). Emma is in regular contact with April Warfield (Callaghan) (97 – 03), Kate Simcock (99 – 03) and occasional contact with many other former students. Emma enjoys keeping up with what everyone is doing. Emma was invited to join the Golden Key Society, an international honour society earlier this year.

Emily Green (99 – 03) is signed as a full-time songwriter to publishers Alberts Music (ACDC, Gotype, etc) and has spent the past year travelling the United States, London and Europe working with producers and artists the world over. In the new year Emily is being relocated to Berlin for a short time to complete her own album project. Emily is still in contact with Mathew Passmore (99 – 03), Emmy Lou Todd (99 – 03), Rachael Austin (99 – 03) and Steven Richards (99 – 03) who are all doing well.

Debbie Olsson-White (93 – 03) finally completed her medical studies at the University of Western Australia last year and is now doing an internship at Fremantle Hospital. Debbie is still in contact with Angiolina Velliantis (91 – 03) who is completing her fifth year of post-graduate medicine studies at the University of Western Australia; Charles Jenkinson (91 – 02) who is also working at Fremantle Hospital; Clare Wood (99 – 03) and Whitney Sewell (02 – 03).

Kale Richards (99 – 03) is working for Maersk Supply Service as a Chief Officer on-board anchor handling vessels operating worldwide. Kale is required to work a further six months before he can sit his masters examinations. He is still in contact with Nicholas Rostin (00 – 03), Brodie Boobyer (92 – 03), Jamie Parsons (99 – 03), Sarah Wise (99 – 03) and Gerrard van der Merwe (01 – 02). Kale is still living in Slovenia and planning on taking two years off work in September 2013 to go travelling.

Whitney Sewell (02 – 03) is currently employed at the City of Rockingham as a Horticulturalist. Whitney is still in contact with Kate Cross (Phillips) (91 – 03), Debbie Olsson-White (93 – 03), Jane Hambley (99 – 03) and other friends from Frederick Irwin. This year Whitney had the privilege of being Chief Bridesmaid at Kate Phillips' wedding.

Tegan Short (99 – 03) is working full-time as a commercial lawyer at Bowen Buchbinder Vilensky Lawyers and has recently been appointed as a director of the national sporting body for dancesport, Dancesport Australia Ltd. Tegan is still in contact with Stuart Broadfoot (01 – 03) and Rebekah Murphy (Vanmaris) (91 – 03).

Julie Squires (99 – 03) is working as an Accountant at Pascoe Partners in West Perth and studying for her CPA. Julie is still in contact with many ex-students thanks to social media. The person she is in contact with the most is Zoe Eves (99 – 03) who is currently working as a nurse in Coral Bay and has just got engaged.

April Warfield (Callaghan) (97 – 03) had a gorgeous baby boy, Henry James, in January 2012 and is still currently in Melbourne with her husband and enjoying being a mum. April is still in contact with Kate Simcock (99 – 03) and Emma Green (99 – 03).

2004 Leavers

Karli Payne (00 - 04) graduated from the University of Notre Dame in July with a Bachelor of Education in Primary Teaching. Karli is now teaching at Rockingham Beach Primary School in a Year 5 classroom until the end of the year. Karli still keeps in contact with Simone Rogalski (00 – 04) and Clare Bailey (92 – 04) on a regular basis. All three are doing well.

Ellen Barker (92 – 04) is working full-time as an Outdoor Education Specialist at Presbyterian Ladies' College. Ellen is still in contact with Alyce Holmes (92 – 04), Eleanor Corteen (97 – 04) and Sarah Christiner (00 – 04).

Eliza Bradley (00 – 04) continues to work in the gold mining industry, having been promoted to Senior; every day is a challenge. Eliza is still giving legal and occupational health and safety advice to all who work or are contracted to KCGM Fimiston and Gidji plants in Kalgoorlie. Eliza is still in contact with several ex-students and had a fantastic time when Brady Kenworthy (00 – 04) and Gareth Lane (00 – 04) made the trip to Kalgoorlie to visit her. When the opportunity arises Eliza still sees Karen Elrington (00 – 04).

Candice Di Prinzio (03 – 04) is working in real estate in Mandurah whilst studying beauty at the Western Australia Beauty Academy. Candice works weekends at Napoleon Perdis, Garden City, Booragoon and has an at home salon called 'Pretty in Polish'. Candice has successfully completed Real Estate Agent Triennia 1 Certificate so she can own her own agency.

Ashley Hogen-Esch (92 – 04) started working for CB & I in January as a Mechanical Engineer and is currently living and working in Sydney delivering a project for Caltex.

Renaë Mercer (00 – 04) is a Home Economics Teacher at Hedland Senior High School and is enjoying the Pilbara lifestyle of camping, fishing and exploring that beautiful part of Western Australia. Renaë is still in contact with Candice Diprinzio (03 – 04), Simone Rogalski (00 – 04), Clare Bailey (92 – 04) and Katie Hamilton (01 – 04). Renaë is hoping to teach in a remote community or on one of the islands that border Australia sometime in the future.

Nicolla Taylor (02 – 04) has been working as a teacher in the Secondary School Engagement Program, teaching Year 10, 11 and 12 students at Coodanup Community College. She has also recently received the position of Staff Health and Well Being Coordinator at the school. Nicolla is still in contact with some of her friends from school, who are all doing well and are successful in their lives and careers: Christa Mader (92 – 04), Josh Uren and Bethany Uren (Weekes) (03 – 04) , Rhianon Walters (98 – 04), Garth Ashby (92 – 04), Kevin Stephens (94 – 04) and Christopher Dwyer (93 – 04). Nicolla and Brett have spent the last 6 months finishing off the house they built 2 years ago, decorating the interior and landscaping the gardens. They have also travelled to England, Rome and France for 3 weeks during the winter holidays.

2005 Leavers

Rebecca Adams (01 – 05) is working as an Environmental Advisor for Leighton Contractors based in the Solomon Mine Site in the Pilbara following a transfer from Cockatoo Island in the Kimberly. Rebecca is still in contact with Fraser Kenworthy (01 – 04), Shirall Armstrong (01 – 05), Sarah McAllister (01 – 05), Wesley (Blair) Thompson (01 – 05) and Claire Burton (01 – 05).

Shirall Armstrong (01 – 05) graduated from Murdoch University in March with a double degree in Psychology and Criminology and is currently working as a Drug and Alcohol Counsellor at South Metro Community Drug Service. Shirall is still in contact with Sarah McAllister (01 – 05), Rebecca Adams (01 – 05), Rebecca Ellis (01 – 05), Brooke Halleen (93 – 05), Wesley (Blair) Thompson (01 – 05), Kyle Wilson (96 – 05), Thomas Knowles (01 – 05), Keith Mitchell (95 – 05) and Zalen Croll (04 – 05).

Katherine Bloomfield (01 – 05) is working as a Clinical Nurse at St John of God Hospital, Murdoch. Katherine is still in contact with Rebecca Sanders (01 – 05).

Lisa Bowdin (98 – 05) is finishing her degree in Dentistry at the University of Western Australia. She is still in contact with Renee Maybury (94 – 05) and Phyliscia Fenwick (94 – 05). Lisa has recently accepted a job in Bunbury as a Dentist and will be working there from 2013.

Claire Burton (01 – 05) is currently completing a Master of Teaching at the University of Western Australia to become a high school English teacher and has recently been awarded an internship at Shenton College for her final teaching prac in 2013. She is also a Boarding House Assistant at Presbyterian Ladies' College, a position held and enjoyed for the past five years. In addition to her education commitments Claire is also the Marketing Coordinator at Thomas Sabot in Perth. Claire is still in contact with Jarrad Seng (93 – 05) and Rebecca Adams (01 – 05). Claire employs Jarrad's professional photography skills for Thomas Sabo events. Amazingly, Claire still finds time to travel and this year visited New York City, Chicago, Whistler, Seattle, San Francisco, Noosa, Shark Bay, Sydney and Melbourne. Claire particularly enjoyed revisiting Seattle to catch up with friends from her study abroad at the University of Washington in 2008.

Jarryd Emery (01 – 05) will, in the next year, be continuing employment as Digital Media Executive at Kanopy. He changed jobs to be at Kanopy who provide a video streaming service, inclusive of thousands of titles, to each of the Australian Universities and TAFEs, some New Zealand Universities as well as a number of United States universities such as Harvard and University of Maine. Jarryd is still in contact with Jay Boyd (93 – 05), Jacob Brownley (94 – 05), Clayton Thomas (93 – 05), Mathew Boreland (94 – 05), Jackson Hunt (01 – 05) and David Morgan (94 – 05). Jarryd recently married his fiancée, Monique, and is travelling to Rome on his honeymoon.

Jenna Flynn (01 – 05) is working full-time as a Pharmacist at Warnbro Pharmacy.

Aaron Gibson (01 – 05) is working as an Articled Surveyor for De Nada Surveys in Balcatta doing construction set out and property boundary marking. Aaron is still in contact with Robert Chapman (01 – 05), Mark Sinclair (93 – 05), Sean Simpson (02 – 05), Cameron Wright (04 – 05), Stephanie Winterton (93 – 05) and Sophie Wittwer (01 – 05) who are all doing well.

Alex Hardingham (01 – 05) has been working as a Nursing Officer in the Royal Australian Air Force where she has had the opportunity to travel overseas and within Australia on humanitarian and operational duties. Alex is based in Richmond, New South Wales and being posted in early 2013 to Newcastle, New South Wales. Alex is still in contact with Jamie Griechen (01 – 05) who is moving to Melbourne in 2013 with Sam Bolton (03 – 05); Kristen Gennoe (93 – 05) who is completing a social work degree; Praewpilin Power (02 – 05) who is travelling and working as a Pharmacist and Aaron Gibson (01 – 05).

Mitchell Jones (93 – 05) started and sold a small business in Brisbane after leaving the ADF. Mitchell is now on his way back to the Middle East to take up a new role as a private security contractor. Mitchell has kept in irregular contact with old friends; however, enjoys catching up when possible. Mitchell owns his own inner city apartment in Brisbane and is looking to invest in more real estate in Western Australia and abroad.

Ashley Knox (01 – 05) is currently working for Western Power in Inventory in her sixth year with the Company. She went to Europe in July/August with Ashleigh Boobbyer (93 – 95). Ashley is also still in contact with Ashley-Charis Burton (03 – 05) and Jackson Hunt (01 – 05).

Jarrod Seng (93 – 05) has had many adventures as a Freelance Photographer. Highlights include: a commission for the Perth International Arts Festival; going around the country with United Kingdom Musician 'Passenger' and touring with 'Matchbox 20' as their official Australian Tour Photographer. Jarrod has also enjoyed collaborating on projects with artists like Matt Corby, Kate Miller-Heidke and Ball Park Music. He has completed several artist residencies in the Pilbara this year working with remote Indigenous communities and been working in the arts sector for a youth arts agency, producing arts projects and events for young people.

Sean Simpson (02 – 05) graduated MSc in Sustainability Management from Columbia University, New York and is currently self-employed doing sustainability reporting work whilst looking for full-time employment.

Cameron Wright (04 – 05) is working as a Pharmacist at Fremantle Hospital and living with friends in North Fremantle. Cameron is still in contact with Sean Simpson (02 – 05), Stephanie Winterton (93 – 05), Daniel Bamford (01 – 05), Aaron Gibson (01 – 05), Tammie Samuels (93 – 05) and Mark Sinclair (93 – 05). They are all going really well!

Matthew Wright (04 – 05) has completed a Bachelor Degree in Mechanical Engineering at Curtin University and started a two year graduate program with BHP Billiton which finished this year. Matthew is now the Mechanical Engineer for BHP Billiton at their 'Area C' mine site in the Pilbara. Matthew has toured Europe for seven weeks and been sky diving in New Zealand.

2006 Leavers

Haddon Atwell (02 – 06) has just finished his fifth year of University studying a double degree in Psychology and Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations. Haddon went to the Philippines as a volunteer teaching 2500 youths about HIV/AIDS. Afterwards he working part-time at Able Bus and Coach as a Human Resource Office. Haddon is starting work with Rio Tinto in December 2012 following completion of his final semester at Curtin University. Haddon is still in contact with Mitchel Broun (02 – 06) and Mathew Sulcs (02 – 06). Haddon won a Grand Final with Wesley Curtin Football Club in 2012 who were also champions for division 5 pennants in tennis in 2012. He has travelled and seen most of Asia in the last two years and is hoping to visit Cambodia, Vietnam and Laos after graduation.

Brenton Baker (96 – 06) is continuing to grow his group of IT and Marketing companies and has recently opened a branch office in Perth. Brenton is still in contact with many ex-students.

Emily Bateman (02 – 06) has been completing her final year of a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and Bachelor of Commerce at the University of Notre Dame. In between university and part-time work at Walker Wayland Emily has been busy completing ten seasonal clerkships at various law and accounting firms across the city. Emily enjoys camping, 4WD, socialising and playing with her Border Collie puppy, Echo. During the last few years Emily has done quite a bit of travelling to Europe, the United Kingdom and Hong Kong and next year will be taking a year off to travel Australia by 4WD and maybe head to Canada to work with a friend on a ski resort. Emily plans to commence employment with Ernst and Young in Perth as a graduate in 2014. Emily is still in contact with many ex-students from within and outside her graduating year and is travelling to Ko Samui with an ex Frederick Irwin student this year. All appear well and many have been travelling abroad.

Emma Boland (02 – 06) is currently studying Bachelor of Nursing at Murdoch University which she will complete mid December 2012. She will then start full-time work as a Registered Nurse in February 2013. Emma was lucky enough to be selected to complete an international clinical placement in Laos for three weeks where three health clinics in eleven different villages in the Seuang Valley region were set up enabling treatment of 200+ villagers a day. This was a once in a lifetime opportunity and provided valuable experience.

Mathew Fraser (02 – 06) finished Chemical and Process Engineering and Computer Science degrees at the University of Western Australia this year.

Acacia Hosking (05 – 06) completed her Bachelor of Arts (Communication Studies and Political Science) and Bachelor of Laws at the University of Western Australia this year. She will commence employment in a graduate position with law firm King and Wood Mallesons for 2013. Acacia is still in contact with Louise Murtagh (03 – 06), Gemma Sheridan (02 – 06), Louise Tilt (02 – 06), Josie Ashby (94 – 06), Amy Nagatani (02 – 06), Sally Knight (94 – 06) and Tracey Kingsbury (01 – 05).

Crystal Lancaster (02 – 06) is working full time and completing Certificate 4 in marketing.

Brent Rogalski (02 – 06) will be commencing his second year of full-time work (Sports Science) at the West Coast Eagles Football Club. The role consists of collection and analysis of GPS, workload and wellness data for injury prevention and performance enhancement. Brent is still in contact with many of his school friends. Brent was the team runner for the West Coast Eagles for the game vs Port Adelaide at AAMI Stadium in Round 20 of the 2012 AFL season. He continues to act as a match day Performance Analyst in the coaches' box for all home and away fixtures. Brent travelled through Japan (Osaka/Kyoto/Tokyo) during the 2012 October break.

2007 Leavers

Laura Buters (03 – 07) is currently finishing her fifth year of medicine in Port Hedland as part of the Rural Clinical School of Western Australia. Laura is still in regular contact with Sara Schaus (03 – 07), Sarah Elrington (03 – 07), Hannah Feldman (03 – 07) and Constance Smith (95 – 07). Laura is still spending all her savings on travel and spent ten weeks in Laos/Cambodia this year. She completed a four week clinical placement in Port Vila, Vanuatu, and is in the final stages of organising a ten week trip to Canada and the United States of America.

Ashleigh (Ash) Byrne (97 – 07) over the last fifteen months has been working as a Personal Trainer in the Pilbara at several mine sites. For the last eight months Ashleigh has been permanent in Port Hedland where she has been made Manager of the four residing mine sites in the area and oversees the general running of all four gyms.

Sarah Elrington (03 – 07) graduated with Honours from Western Australian School of Mines (Mining Environmental Engineering) and now works at Rio Tinto Iron Ore as an Environmental Rehabilitation and Site Environmental Advisor. Sarah has moved back from Kalgoorlie and now lives in Perth with her boyfriend, whilst doing FIFO to various mine sites. Sarah is still in contact with Sara Schaus (03 – 07), Laura Buters (03 – 07), Constance Smith (95 – 07) and Hannah Feldman (03 – 07).

Chelsea Hall (95 – 07) is just about to complete her first year studying a Bachelor of Outdoor Recreation at the University of Notre Dame. Chelsea is still in contact with Jessica Chomley (95 – 07).

Matthew Harper (03 – 07) has been travelling Europe after finishing a Bachelor of Commerce (Marketing) at Curtin University in 2011. He is living and working in the United Kingdom for six months and had tickets to various events during the London Olympic Games. Whilst travelling around Europe Matthew worked at the Munich Oktoberfest then returned to London to find work before heading to Iceland at the end of the year. Matthew has been travelling with Rhiannon Salisbury (95 – 07) and Paul Buckley (03 – 07) since February and will be joined by Joshua Martin (03 – 07) and Matthew Stewart (03 – 07) for Christmas.

Hannah Henderson (97 – 07) is currently working for Crown Perth as a Recruitment Assistant. Hannah is still in contact with Louise Clark (03 – 07) and Isabelle Stacey (03 – 07).

Dean Hogen-Esch (95 – 07) is currently working as an Electrical Trade Assistant at BP Refinery. In 2013 he will be completing an Operator Traineeship with Woodside. Dean is still in contact with James Reyburn (95 – 07) and William Solomon (95 – 07). They are both doing great and on their way to success.

Zoe Jay (02 – 07) graduated in Bachelor of Creative Industries, double majoring in Photography, Film and Video. After graduation Zoe travelled Europe and is still in contact with Raine Becker (03 – 07) who is doing well and has now moved into her own house. Zoe and Raine try and skype every so often but it is extremely difficult with the eight hour time difference. Zoe auditioned and was successful to become a dancer in Disneyland, Paris, where she starts work at the end of the year.

Elizabeth Manassah (95 – 07) has been working as a part-time Librarian in the Robertson Library at Curtin University and during the second semester commenced studying a postgraduate diploma in Information Systems at Curtin University. Next year Elizabeth is planning to continue working part-time and studying part-time. Elizabeth is still in contact with Tanya Badenhorst (05 – 07), Emily Tuckey (03 – 07), Sharon Wong (03 – 07), Emma Fox (03 – 07), Corinna Pemberton (Szekely) (01 – 07) and Tristan Richards (03 – 07).

Tara Mills (Donnelly) (06 – 07) completed her second year at university studying to be a Paramedic (QUT) this year. Tara is also eighteen months into a business degree (Griffith).

Emily Palmer (02 – 07) has been the Year 4 Teacher at Hillman Primary School since January this year. She has gained employment in the same position for next year. Emily and her partner have just bought a new house and a puppy and are planning to move to the country and start up their own business. Emily is still in contact with Stephanie Ellingson (Parker) (03 – 07) who got married in April and Rhiannon Salisbury (95 – 07) who left in January with a one way ticket to Europe and is having a fantastic time over there.

Amy Pannekoek (99 – 07) has spent the past year building a house with Tyler Olsen (03 – 07) and working as a Sales Support Coordinator at her parents business, Swivelpole. Amy is also still in contact with Amber Boucaut (96 – 07), Taryn Palermo (03 – 07), Conor Woznuik (03 – 07), Kasey Martyn (95 – 07), Mark Elliot (00 – 07), Alison Woolfenden (03 – 07) and many other ex-students.

Bianca Saggars (03 – 07) is still employed at the Department of Immigration and Citizenship as an Executive Officer. She often has the opportunity to travel to regional locations in a regional management role. Bianca is still in contact with Rachel Preston (03 – 07), Hannah George (03 – 07), Clair Sievwright (03 – 07) and Kathryn Marter (96 – 02). Bianca is currently studying Indonesian as a second language in preparation for overseas postings.

Sara Schaus (03 – 07) has just finished her Bachelor in Civil Engineering and will be completing her Bachelor of Commerce on exchange in Paris next year. She is currently working for Brookfield Multiplex Engineering and Infrastructure. Sara is still in contact with most of her close friends from school and they are all in the process of finishing degrees and starting graduate jobs.

Isabelle Stacey (03 - 07) graduated from Bachelor of Arts and began Honours in Psychology (part-time) this year. She is living in Applecross, working at Soho in Harbour Town and University of Western Australia Theatres. Isabelle lives with Natasha Edge (97 – 08), works with Lisa Cumming (03 – 07), Centre buddies with Taylor Hunt (07) and Evana Co'cliff. Isabelle is still in contact with Emily Sefton (98 - 07), Zacary Leeson (03 - 07), Elle Johnson (03 – 07) and others occasionally. Isabelle is a volunteer with the Australian Youth Climate Coalition as an Outreach Campaigner.

Arina Vasilieva (03 – 07) will complete her Bachelor of Law at Murdoch University and next year commence working as a law graduate for a QC and two other barristers practising in criminal law, while completing a graduate diploma of Legal Practice at the College of Law. Arina is still in contact with Tara O'Donnell (03 – 07), Cheri Turley (03 – 07) and Zarna Geraghty (03 – 07).

Alison Woolfenden (03 – 07) is still completing a Bachelor of Commerce at Curtin University part-time and is working full-time as the Assistant Marketing Manager at Rockingham Shopping Centre. Alison is still in contact with Taryn Palermo (03 – 07), Amy Pannekoek (99 – 07), Amber Boucaut 96 – 07), Lauren Albough (03 – 07) and Gabriel Heaslip (03 – 07).

2008 Leavers

Jessica-Ann Gravett (04 – 08) graduated last year with a Bachelor of Communications, majoring in Broadcasting. Jessica-Ann is working at 92.9 full-time, one of Perth's leading commercial radio stations, since January as an Integration Assistant. She works very closely with the on air team to execute promotions and events, helping out and producing the breakfast show when needed. Jessica-Ann is working towards becoming a Producer. She is really enjoying her job and has made many good friends and experiencing many new and different things. The highlight of her job so far was meeting Mel B from the Spice Girls.

Craig Boland (04 – 08) is graduating from post-graduate studies at the University of Notre Dame in Exercise Physiology. He is still in contact with Sam Martin (94 – 08), Matthew Page (00 – 08), Nathan Williamson (06 – 10) and Rex Dubois (04 – 08).

Kristy Havelberg (06 – 08) has completed a Bachelor of Commerce, Public Relations and Marketing at Curtin University and is now working full-time at Crown Entertainment Complex as a Public Relations Coordinator, Hotels, Events and Conventions. Kristy is still in contact with Eva Buckley (04 – 08) and Rebecca Richards and is living with Claire Fairhead (03 – 08) and Matt Boobbyer (96 – 03). This year Kristy has enjoyed catching up with old friends at the many 21st birthdays that have been celebrated.

Mitchell Henderson-Miller (04 – 08) has recently completed his second year studying Urban and Regional Planning at Curtin University, as well as starting work at the new Perth Arena as a Casual Bar Concession Attendant. Mitchell is still good friends with Paul Boyle (04 – 08) and is in contact with other ex-students through social media. Ryan McRedmond (04 – 08) also recently started work at Perth Arena. Mitchell moved out of home at the start of this year and has lived in three different share houses. He has played numerous gigs around Perth with local and interstate artists.

Kate Lathouras (06 – 08) started doing her third year of Physiotherapy at the University of Notre Dame this year. Half way through the year Kate received an offer to sail with 2008 Gold Medallist, Tessa Parkinson, with the aim to compete in the 2016 Rio Olympics. Kate accepted her offer and deferred university for one year and since June has been training for the summer regattas which are in the Eastern states. If selected Kate will go into the Australian Sailing Team and begin a four year campaign for the Olympics. Kate is still in contact with a few people. She regularly speaks to Emily Petterson (04 – 08) and catches up with school friends at parties or whenever she can.

Roseanne Lathouras (06 – 08) is currently living in South Melbourne. She completed Year 11 and Year 12 via Distance Education (SIDE) and did three years full-time dancing at Dance World Studios, completing a double Diploma in Dance. This year Roseanne is working at Rebel sports, does the odd commercial dancing gig and goes regularly to dance auditions. Roseanne has completed Certificate 3 in Fitness and has applied for VCA – Degree in Dance. Roseanne is still in contact with friends from school and they are doing well in life and at University.

Jessica Parker (04 – 08) is working full-time at Alcoa on both the mine site and the refinery as an Emergency Response Officer (medic, security, fire) and has worked towards Certificate IV in Training and Assessing and Certificate IV in Pre-Hospital Care.

Charles Pym (96 – 08) is studying a double degree in Law and Economics at the University of Western Australia, majoring in Money and Banking and is residing at St George's College. Charles studied during winter at Peking University, China and has been working in Rio Tinto in Perth and the Lion Rock Institute for Public Policy in Hong Kong. Charles has plans to visit Hong Kong with Aiden McMahan (04 – 08), Andrew Tilt (04 – 08) and Benjamin Howie (04 – 08). Charles is the Chair of the University of Western Australia Guild.

Luke Senior (04 – 08) completed his final year of studying a Bachelor of Civil Engineering at the University of Western Australia and will begin work with Leighton Contractors in 2013. Luke is still in contact with Ben Hardman (96 – 08), Georgia Ellis (04 – 08), Jaimi Andrews (04 – 08), Scott Hardman (00 – 04), Mitchell Hardman (97 – 09), Stuart Aubrey (04 – 07), Reece Sheridan (04 – 08), Nicholas Doohan (04 – 08), Brittany Russell (04 – 08), Mikhail Alexander (03 – 08), Ryan McRedmond (04 – 08), Michael Crocetta (04 – 08) and Christopher Whitehill (04 – 08)... the list goes on. Everyone is doing well!

Bree Sipavicius (99 – 08) is currently undertaking her final year of her commerce degree majoring in accounting and business law. At the end of year Bree will be moving from Perth to Brisbane to take up a graduate position with Xstrata in their supply and logistics department. Bree is still in contact with several ex-students.

Timothy Spragg (96 – 08) is still studying Applied Geology at Curtin University whilst working at Madora Bay Tavern at the same time. Timothy is still in contact with Nicholas Doohan (04 – 08), Alix Turley (04 – 08), Regan Vermeulen (96 – 08), Benjamin Howie (04 – 08) and Aiden McMahan (04 – 08) to name a few.

2009 Leavers

Keylen Astwood (01 – 09) is currently employed as a Rifleman in the Infantry Regiment, Australian Army. On completion of the Infantry Tactics in Singleton in 2011 Keylen was sent on a training exercise on Jungle and Urban Warfare in Thailand, Malaysia and Singapore for three months. During 2012 Keylen was sent on a Combat First Aid Course and an Advanced Medical Trauma Treatment Course. Keylen and his peers have been selected to take part in ATF-1, a task group deploying to Afghanistan in late 2012. Keylen is still in contact with Lewis Cooling (97 – 09), Stephen Arkwright (09 – 09), Morgan Eales (05 – 09), Hayden Troy (05 – 09) and Rhys Simmons (97 – 09).

Kiara Bell (05 – 09) has completed her third year of Physiotherapy at the University of Notre Dame with still one year to go. Kiara has worked as a Physiotherapy student at the Mandurah Peel Health Campus and Mandurah Physiotherapy Clinic. She has also worked as a hygiene technician for South West Occupational Health Services and spent most of her University breaks doing FIFO for Rio Tinto. This year Kiara got engaged to Michael Hay and they are set to be married at St Mary's Cathedral in October 2013.

Tyson Brandis (05 – 09) is in his third year as an Instrument/Electrical Apprentice at Alcoa, Pinjarra.

Benjamin Cowdray (97 – 09) is employed at one of the largest Audio Visual companies in Australia, Rutledge Engineering, as a Site Technician and System Designer. When Benjamin is not working he still maintains some creative outlets through art and guitar. Benjamin also stays active by participating in sports such as Football (AFL), Basketball and Cricket. He lives with two ex-students, Tyson Brandis (05 – 09) and Wade Ansell (05 – 08) who are both in very good positions in life and are doing well. Benjamin is still in weekly contact with Lincoln Meyers (97 – 09), Christian Swift (02 – 09), Jack Rooney (97 – 08) and Joshua Chidlow (97 – 07). This year Benjamin was taken on by his current employer as the youngest technician in Rutledge history and has recently received a promotion which has also made him the youngest Site Supervisor in this national company's history.

Elizabeth Dawson (05 – 09) is working at the WACA in female club cricket and female under 15 and under 18 high performance whilst studying Commerce at Curtin University. Elizabeth played first WNCL and WT20 cricket fixture in January this year against Queensland at the Gabba in season 2011-12 and against Tasmania this season at the WACA.

Bundilla Dingjan (05 – 09) is working FIFO in Port Hedland whilst studying online. Bundilla is still in contact with most of his friends from school. Bundilla's last swimming competition was the 2012 London Olympic trials where he raced the 100m freestyle, 200m freestyle, 400m freestyle and 50m breaststroke. Bundilla retired from swimming after the competition to focus on his career.

Brodie Egan (01 – 09) has been completing his third year of Applied Geology at Curtin University and has been selected as a student Geologist over the summer for Alacer Gold Mining on FIFO basis. Brodie still keeps in contact with Alana Morris (05 – 09), Naomi Craig (97 – 09), Madison Frost (08 – 09) and a few others who are also at University and doing very well.

Jason Fiander (97 – 09) has completed a Bachelor of Digital Design at Curtin University and is currently doing an internship at 97.3.

Madison Frost (08 – 09) is still undertaking a Physiotherapy course at the University of Notre Dame and on her first placement working with children in Mandurah. Madison is on a clear career path and is hoping to travel overseas with her qualifications in two years' time. Madison is still in contact with many people from school: Tyson Brandis (05 – 09), Alana Morris (05 – 09), Cila Hardingham (05 – 09), Rheanna Carton (05 – 09) and Lara Watson (05 – 09). Tyson only has a year left in his electrical/instrumental apprenticeship at Alcoa.

Natasha Harper (05 – 09) is due to commence her final semester studying Anthropology and Sociology at Curtin University whilst maintaining a part-time job in order to save for upcoming holidays to Thailand, Kuala Lumpur and South Africa. Natasha is still in contact with Rachel Clarke (01 – 09), Samantha Clarke (02 – 07), Bridgette O'Farrell (05 – 09), Renee O'Donnell (05 – 09), Emily McLarty (97 – 09), Charlotte Taylor (05 – 09), Brianna Fleming (05 – 09) and many others. Natasha moved to an apartment in Victoria Park just before Christmas of 2011.

Timothy Jenner (96 – 09) is currently in his second year of Bachelor of Social Work at Edwin Cowan University and is working casually for Telstra. Timothy is still in contact with Amie Clune (05 – 09), Tanya Baker (97 – 09), Caitlin Walker (Edwards) (97 – 09), Kaiya Williams, Rachel Walker (05 – 09), Michiel Debeer (05 – 09).

Hannah Knight (97 – 09) is currently studying in the United States at the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs (UCCS). She is on a scholarship for basketball and is majoring in Business with a minor in Women and Ethnic studies. Hannah is in her second year and loving it! Hannah is still in contact with a lot of people from school. Social media has been a fantastic way for Hannah to keep in touch whilst living so far away. Hannah found it hard not being able to attend Caitlin Edwards (97 – 09), Tanya Baker (97 – 09) and Rachel Walkers (05 – 09) weddings!!

Jason Marsh (05 – 09) has been working for a company called Metwest Steel since 2010 in various roles. Since the beginning of 2012 Jason has been working as a project manager for various large residential and small commercial projects. Jason still keeps in contact with Matthew Gazzone (08 – 09), Harry McCracken (05 – 09), Mitchell McCall (05 – 07), Alex Chisholm (05 – 09), Liam Birmingham (00 – 08), Josh Wozniuk (05 – 09), Trent Nagtegal (05 – 09) and Zac Smith (08 – 09).

Emily McLarty (97 – 09) has just completed her Bachelor of Commerce with a major in Accounting and Business Law at Curtin University. She is currently working part-time at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry WA in their Finance department and is due to commence her graduate position at RSM Bird Cameron in February in their Business Solutions division. Emily is currently living with Chloe (05 – 09) and Hayley Wellstead (07 – 11) and is still in contact with a large number of close friends from high school. Emily was lucky enough to be selected to study in Germany at the European Business School over the European summer break where she met some great people from all over the world. Chloe got to really experience what it is like doing business in the European Union and saw the effects of the current EU crisis regarding the Greek economy first hand.

Alice Pennycott (05 – 09) completed her third year of a double degree in Law and Commerce at the University of Western Australia and is working part-time at Witch's Cauldron in Subiaco and nannying in Cottesloe. Alice is also a volunteer at Cat Haven in Shenton Park and backpacked through China in December 2011.

Rachel Walker (05 – 09) has just finished her second year of Dentistry at the University of Western Australia. Rachel is still in contact with Tanya Baker (97 – 09), who is getting married in December 2012; Amie Clune (05 – 09) who has just finished her nursing degree at the University of Notre Dame; Caitlin Edwards (97 – 09) who is married and now lives in Albany; Tim Jenner (96 – 09); Rachel Massie (08 – 09); Hannah Knight (97 – 09) and a few other ex-students. Rachel is getting married in March 2013 to ex-student Damon Williams (00 – 06).

2010 Leavers

Kyle Bermingham (98 – 10) is studying Commerce at Murdoch University, majoring in Finance and working part-time. He is still in contact with Joshua Forrester (98 – 10), Thomas Dowding (05 – 10), Niall Murray (07 – 10), Robert Winning (98 – 10) and Jack Cocking (98 – 10). Kyle is heading to Utah for a month during the University break snowboarding with Thomas Dowding and Joshua Forrester.

Elizabeth DGLISH (09 – 10) is currently at Murdoch University studying a Bachelor of Education in Years 1 – 10 Health Education and still working part-time at Farmer Jacks. Elizabeth is still in contact with Tamika Longworth (09 – 10) and Cameron Williams (01 – 10) who are both doing really well. Elizabeth is moving to Canada next year for a working holiday and is excited for this incredible life experience.

Thomas Dowding (05 – 10) has just completed his first year of construction management at Curtin University and is fairly sure he has passed all the units for the year. He is currently in Park City Utah, United States of America on a working holiday with Joshua Forrester (98 – 10). It is around zero degrees and the resort opens shortly so snowboarding can begin! They were both snow makers but have now been moved to alpine coaster workers, which is a lot more chilled. Thomas is on a twelve month visa and not entirely sure whether he will keep travelling after or return for a second year at University. Tyler van der Merwe (06 – 10) and Claudia Klusek (06 – 10) are on their way to join Thomas and Joshua. Thomas is also still in contact with Robert Winning (08 – 10), Jack Cocking (98 – 10), Kyle Bermingham (98 – 10), Gordon McArtney (09 – 10), Benjamin Loaring (09 – 10), Kieren Abbott (98 – 10) and pretty much everyone else who used to sit on that bench in the Canteen. Thomas did not do so well with his TER score and went on to complete a three month Curtin University bridging course, which he would highly recommend to anyone.

Chris Field (98 – 10) is in the Army Reserves and has backpacked in Vietnam. Chris is still in contact with Brad Mason (06 – 10), Jesse Darch (06 – 08), Patrick Mazzuchelli (98 – 09) and other ex-students.

William (Billy) Foskett (06 – 10) will be entering his third year of Chemical Engineering at Curtin University in 2013, while working as a Housing Assistant at on-campus accommodation. William is still in contact with Georgina Cahill (06 – 10), Michael Harris (06 – 10), Kira Flynn (98 – 10), Shanice Wilkins (98 – 10), Tess O'Grady (06 – 10), Sarah Davis (06 – 10) and Jordan Hewson (98 – 10).

Chanelle Kildea (98 – 10) is halfway through an applied events management degree at Murdoch University. She is working at a local IGA and is a casual Usher at Perth Arena and is still riding horses and loving life. Chanelle is still in contact with most of her group of friends; Bronte Foale (98 – 10), Ali Behets-Smollen (06 – 09), Evelyn Petterson (06 – 10), Emily Martin-Symons (06 - 10), Rhiannon Smith (06 – 10), Leonardus (Max) Van Dongen (98 - 10), Shannon Howie (06 – 10) and many more.

Michaela Martindale (07 – 10) is completing a traineeship at Alcoa after which employment at Alcoa has been secured. She is still in contact with some ex-students. Michaela is competing 2Star evening with her horses and has competed in Sydney and Melbourne and will be travelling to Adelaide in the next few weeks to ride there.

Rebecca McLarty (98 – 10) is going into her second year at the University of Melbourne, where she is studying Media Communications and Political and International Studies. Rebecca is also privileged to be working as Vice President of her residential college, Whitley. Although Rebecca is not at home in Western Australia often, she loves to catch up with friends from high school whenever she can.

Tess O'Grady (06 – 10) has completed her first year Medical Imaging Science at Curtin University. Tess is still coaching gymnastics and has completed several tickets and started coaching sailing. Tess works at Mandurah Offshore Sailing Club in the bar/restaurant. Tess does not have frequent contact with ex-students; however, does catch up occasionally with some.

Fiona Parker (06 – 10) is currently at the University of Western Australia doing a double major in Japanese/Chinese, learning French as an elective and living on campus at St Catherine's College. Fiona is still good friends with Roxanne Hitchcock (06 – 10) and Emily Denholm (98 – 10) and is still in contact with Jarrad Seng (93 – 05), Steven Arena (97 – 09), Emily Coles (06 – 10), Caitlin Fisher (06 – 10), Charles Pym (96 – 08) and Ryan Kirke (98 – 10). Fiona has the following achievements: Fresher of the Year at College (2011); President of the Residential Students' Department (UWA Guild) (2012) Enid Russell Scholarship; St Catherine's College (2012) Collegian of the Year (2012 and President of St Catherine's College (2013).

Anita Telkamp (98 – 10) is half way through her Bachelor of Education/Bachelor of Arts (Drama and Dance Teaching) and has successfully completed her first teaching practice at Lake Joondalup Baptist College. Anita is currently working at the Regal Theatre in Subiaco as an Usher. Anita is still in contact with most of her friends from school. Anita has appeared in the local production of Hairspray and has continued to Dance around Mandurah in competitions.

Nathan Williamson (06 – 10) has just finished his first year at the University of Notre Dame studying Health Science. He is hoping to get into secondary sports teaching next year and is still employed at Clayton Utz (law firm in Perth) on a part-time basis. Nathan is still in contact with Blair Bell (06 – 10), Niall Murray (07 – 10), Samuel Case (08 – 10), Robert Winning (98 – 10), Michael Harris (06 – 10), Peter Drage (98 – 10), Corey Morris (07 – 11) who are all doing well, enjoying their lifestyles, work and sports. Nathan is still involved with WAFL umpiring.

2011 Leavers

Grace Ainsley (Crawford) (07 – 11) is currently living at St George's College and attending the University of Western Australia, completing the undergraduate component of Assured entry pathway for medicine. Grace is still in contact with many ex-students.

Emma Cook (07 – 11) has had a gap year and been working at Good Guys in administration and the warehouse. Emma is still in contact with all her friends and they are all doing well. Emma is working towards becoming a Maritime Warfare Officer and her RAN appointment is in February.

Sam Hepton (99 – 11) has completed a Certificate 3 in Information Technology and Digital Media and is in the process of completing Certificate 4. Sam is still in contact with Abbey Humble (07 – 11), Kate Jones (99 – 11), Luke Rowlands (01 – 11) and Jasmin Bell (07 – 11). Abbey has dropped out of University and is currently working at the 'Blue Ren Café' and the 'Pinjarra Bakehouse'. Kate Jones has dropped out of University and has just been appointed at a large law firm in Perth. Luke Rowlands is still at University; he is working at Halls Head Dome and a lunch bar. Jasmin Bell is still at University and works in K-Mart in Rockingham. Last semester Sam achieved top of his Certificate 3 class at TAFE. Sam is currently planning to go to University to do either a course in Interactive Digital Design or Games and Design.

Emma Hunter (07 – 11) is studying a Bachelor of Commerce at Curtin University majoring in Accounting and Business Law and was awarded a Curtin Business School Scholarship. Emma is still in contact with many people within the 2011 graduate year group, particularly Daisy Magor (99 – 11), Elle Murdoch (07 – 11), Rebecca Johns (07 – 11), Laura Heys (99 – 11), Brianna Peck (99 – 11) and Chelsea Sanders (07 – 11).

Emerald Kerr (99 – 11) is currently at Murdoch University studying Tourism and Hospitality and working as a Lifeguard at Mandurah Aquatic and Recreation Centre.

Daisy Magor (99 – 11) is currently at Curtin University doing a mathematics degree, specialising in financial mathematics. She is still in contact with most of her year group.

Lauren Overton (99 – 11) has just finished her first year at Curtin University studying Commerce. Lauren is still in contact with most of the friends she socialised with at school. They are mostly at University or working and are all good!

Kiara Smith (07 – 11) is studying for her Dental Nursing Certificate 3 and 4, through Dental Nursing Australia and is due to qualify at the end of this year. Kiara is hoping to find employment immediately after qualifying. Kiara is still in contact with many ex-students the main ones being Maddison Whisler (07 – 11) who is studying teaching at the University of Notre Dame; Alexandra Spragg (99 – 11) who is at University studying law or something technical; Caitlyn Sangalli (08 – 11) who has just returned from the United Kingdom. Kiara has remained close to her group of friends from school, most of whom have now celebrated their 18th birthdays.

Evan Szekely (01 – 11) is currently looking for work. Evan is moving to Tasmania at the beginning of next year and is still in contact with Sam Hepton (99 – 11) and a few other ex-students. They seem to be very happy and going well. Evan has recently returned from Japan after a six month exchange.

Mathew Turner (07 – 11) is currently a second year Apprentice Heavy Diesel/Plant Mechanic at AGC in Kwinana and completing his TAFE course for this trade at Polytechnic West in Pinjarra, and loving it! Mathew is still in contact with the majority of 2011 leavers. They are all doing well for themselves.